Upon the motion of the Government dated October 30, 2020, and without objection from any of the defendants in this case, it is found that the number of identifiable victims is so large as to make restitution impracticable, and it is further found that determining complex issues of fact related to the cause or amount of the victims' losses would complicate or prolong the sentencing process to a degree that the need to provide restitution to the victims is outweighed by the burden on the sentencing process.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the Government's motion for a finding that restitution is impracticable in this case is granted.

SO ORDERED.
